

News Briefs: Thursday, Oct. 18, 2012

The dawn of music

Four new guitars have been donated to New Dawn house.

Devonian Metals Inc. gave the instruments to the residence after representatives from the company heard the students from Wrigley and Jean Marie River were interested in having guitars.

Trent Cli, 16, said his housemates are enjoying having the instruments. "We just play around with them," Cli said.